

Chateau de Mores

Coloring Activity

The Chateau de Mores was the summer home for the de Mores family. The Marquis de Mores, a French nobleman, came to the badlands of Dakota Territory to make money raising and selling cattle. For three summers the de Mores family—Medora, the Marquis, and their two children—lived in this twenty-six room house that overlooks the town of Medora. The family enjoyed going on hunting trips and entertaining guests. Medora was a wealthy young woman from New York who enjoyed art and music. She ran the busy Chateau household with the help of many servants.

From Where History Happens, a coloring book produced in 1999 by the State Historical Society of North Dakota.

March 2004